

field study report

B.B K. College, Nogaon: Dist: Barpeta (Assam)

www.bbkcollege.co.in

Report On

Field Study to Pobitora Wildlife Sanctuary in Marigaon district (Assam)

Dated: 21/12/2022.

The Department of History initiated a field study tour to Pobitora wildlife sanctuary on 19th December 2022 with the participants from the Department of History as part of experiential learning to fulfill the syllabus of Historical Tourism in North East India (HIS-SE-3014). The following participants in the experiential learning as follows:-

SI NO	Roll No.	Name of participants
1	0008	Atifa Akhtara
2	0010	Babidul Ali
3	0011	Barsha Rani Bayan
4	0014	Bilkis Khanam
5	0015	Bindia Baro
6	0023	Hafija Khatun
7	0025	Ilima Khatun
8	0034	Lajima Khatun
9	0035	Latifa Parbin
10	0038	Majeda Parbin
11	0044	Mitali Roy
12	0047	Parul Parbin
13	0050	Rafida Khanam
14	0055	Rejina Khanam
15	0063	Shahnaz Parbin

16	0064	Sahinur Bhuyan
17	0069	Abu bakkar ali
18	0070	Afruja Begum
19	00074	Anowara Begum
20	0075	Arifa Khanam
21	0076	Asmina Aktara
22	0089	Dipanjali Bharali
23	0117	Mariya Jakiya
24	0126	Priyanka Sarkar
25	0129	Ramena Begum

26	0137	Sahidul Islam
27	0141	Sumia Parbin
28	0149	Almina Aktara
29	0152	Amit malo Das
30	0154	Anjuma Parbin
31	0178	Dinesh malo Das
32	0184	Imdadur Rahman
33	0220	Nirman Chandra saha

The names of accompanying faculty members are as follows:

SL.NO.	Name of faculty Members
1	Dr. Ranjit Sabhapandit
2	Mrs. Phulrenu Mishra
3	Mr. Azizur Rahman

The tour was a successful one as the students were exposed to the Historical evidences which are preserved in the museum. They also enjoyed the jeep safari inside the pobitora wildlife sanctuary and which enriched them. Teacher guided them to Burha Mayong were existed longest inscription of Assam.

Sabhapandit

Dr. Ranjit

of History

Head Department