

REPORT ON: Educational Tour to Assam State Zoo cum Botanical Garden, Guwahati
DATE: 3rd October, 2019

On October 3rd, 2019, B.Sc. 1st semester (honours) students were taken on a one-day educational tour to the Assam State Zoo cum Botanical Garden in Guwahati as part of their curriculum- report on visit to National Park/Biodiversity Park/Wild life sanctuary. A bus was reserved, and two departmental staff members (Mrs. Mrinali Hazarika and Dr. Manalisha Deka) accompanied 32 students on their tour. The bus departed Nagaon, Barpeta, about 7:30 a.m. and arrived at around 11:30 a.m. A modest food was provided along the trip to assist them gather energy before continuing on to their objective. Following their arrival, teachers walked the children through the Zoo, enabling them to carefully observe each species. The children avidly observed and recorded the flora and fauna they encountered. All of the students and teachers went to a local hotel for lunch around 3 p.m. The bus left for Nagaon at 4:30 p.m., dropped off each student at their designated location and arrived in Nagaon at 7 p.m. The educational excursion was thus a success, and the children were able to see several species up close. This journey has taught them more about the species, which they now know more about.
