

REPORT ON: Educational Tour to Assam State Zoo cum Botanical Garden, Guwahati
DATE: 13th October, 2021

B.Sc. 1st semester students were taken on a one-day educational tour to the Assam State Zoo in Guwahati as part of their curriculum on October 13th, 2021. A bus was reserved and two departmental staff members (Mrs. Mrinali Hazarika and Dr. Manalisha Deka) accompanied 32 students on their tour. The bus departed Nagaon, Barpeta, around 7 a.m. and arrived at the desired destination at around 11:15 a.m. A little food was provided along the trip to assist them gather energy before continuing on to their goal. Teachers guided the children through the Zoo, enabling them to observe each species attentively. The children avidly observed and recorded the flora and fauna they encountered. All of the kids and professors proceeded to local hotels for lunch at about 3 p.m. The bus left for Nagaon at 4 p.m., dropped each student off at their designated location, and arrived at 7:30 p.m. After a few days, the students submitted their comments on the excursion and the flora and fauna they encountered. As a result, the educational expedition was a success, and the children were able to observe numerous species up close. Many students had visited a zoo; this tour educated them more about the animals and provided them with an experience they had never before.
