Report on-
One Day Workshop at KK Handique Library, Gauhati University

Venue: KK Handique Library, Gauhati University

A visit to KK Handique Library of Gauhati University to participate in a one day workshop on “Study of Manuscripts” was organized by the Department of Assamese, BBK College in collaboration with the Department of Assamese, Gauhati University on the 18th of March, 2024 at 10.30 am. It was aimed at providing participant students with the knowledge and skills necessary to study, preserve, and understand manuscripts. The PG students of the Department of Assamese participated in the event. The students were accompanied by Dr. Gyanada Deka Talukdar, Mrs. Bhaswati Das and Dr. Rehena Sultana.

The session started with a welcome speech by Dr. Prasanta Kr. Deka, the Librarian of KK Handique Library, Gauhati University. He delivered the introductory speech and emphasized on the need to preserve manuscripts. He also highlighted the fact that manuscripts are sources of information about our past and it speaks a lot about a particular age.

The resource person on the occasion was Mr. Dhanjit Talukdar, Asst. Librarian, Gauhati University and Specialist in Manuscripts. Mr. Dhanjit Talukdar, the resource person, delivered a lecture at length and also demonstrated the scripts in manuscripts. He covered a wide range of topics including the history and development of manuscripts and ancient books, the different types of manuscripts and their physical characteristics. He also spoke on how to identify and describe manuscripts and also highlighted how to care for and preserve manuscripts. He also showed them some manuscripts available in the library.

The participants then visited the Department of Assamese, Gauhati University and interacted with the faculty members.
