Report on-
Celebration of Republic Day of India

Today, on 26th of January, 2021, Baosi Banikanta College celebrated Republic Day great enthusiasm and fervor. Due to the partial lockdown going on during the period, the celebration was attended by a few students, faculty and staff members of the college.

The event started with the hoisting of the Indian National Flag by Dr. Dhruba Kr. Pathak, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Assamese, followed by the singing of the national anthem by all the attendees and a short speech on the special occasion by Dr. Pathak. The attendees also paid floral tributes to the martyrs. This is followed by a series of speeches by some of the attendees including students & faculty members, who spoke about the significance of the day and the importance of upholding the values enshrined in the Indian Constitution. The celebration of Republic Day in BBK College is a great success, with students and faculty coming together to celebrate the occasion.

The event concluded with a speech by the Dr. Manalisha Deka, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Zoology.

The attendees were later treated with refreshments, including sweets and snacks.
