Report on- Saraswati Puja, 2023

26/01/2023

The students and teachers of Baosi Banikanta Kakoti College, Nagaon, Barpeta, gathered on the auspicious day of 'Saraswati Puja' to seek the blessings of the goddess of knowledge, music, art, and culture at 9 AM on 26th of January 2023. The festival was observed with great enthusiasm by worshipping Goddess Saraswati, the source of all learning and creative forms. Students prayed to Maa Saraswati for intelligence, creative and technical abilities, academic achievement, and a kind heart. Many of the students, staff members were present on this occasion.

Dr. Pradip Das, Principal of BBK College informed the students about the significance of Saraswati Puja and also about the Basant Panchami. Worshipping Goddess Saraswati on this occasion is thought to symbolise the continual flow of the hidden river of wisdom and the complete flowering of all the colours of Nature to keep the flame of inspiration burning eternally. Maa Saraswati has four hands, which represent the human ego, mind, intellect, and attentiveness. She is clutching a lotus in one hand, which represents genuine wisdom. She also has the Vedas in one hand and a veena (musical instrument) in the other. Maa Saraswati is seated atop a white swan, which represents the highest form of wisdom.

By conducting 'Saraswati Vandana', the teachers and students invoked the goddess of knowledge's favour for successful academic and professional advancement. The celebration concluded with everyone present receiving prasad. The celebration concluded with everyone present receiving prasad.
