Live Streaming of Mukhya Mantri Nijut Moina Asoni 2.0 and distribution of Cheques

The college successfully organized the live streaming of the Nijut Moina Asoni 2.0 and Cheque distribution programme today the 27th of October, 2025. The main state-level event is held at Sarusajai Stadium, Guwahati. The flagship initiative of the Government of Assam, Nijut Moina Asoni 2.0, aims to provide financial assistance to meritorious girl students pursuing education at various levels, thereby promoting women's empowerment and higher education across the state.

The main programme at Sarusajai Stadium was graced by the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Assam, Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma, along with several dignitaries from the Government of Assam. The Chief Minister, in his address, highlighted the government's continued commitment to ensure equal access to education for girls and encouraged them to aspire towards academic excellence and self-reliance.

At the college venue, a large number of students, faculty members, and staff gathered to witness the live streaming of this remarkable event. The guests on the occasion were Mr. Pradip Das, a noted social worker, Mousumi Chetia, ADC of Barpeta and Sri Tikendra Nath, DPO (SS). A total of 454 undergraduate students, 8 postgraduate students, and 278 higher secondary students from the college were selected as beneficiaries under this scheme.

The college-level programme commenced with a welcome address by the Principal, who extended heartfelt greetings to the attendees and expressed gratitude to the Government of Assam for this progressive initiative. The felicitation of guests with traditional Assamese gamosas was led by Dr. Hiranman Haloi.

Subsequently, Sri Pradip Das, Smt. Mousumi Chetia, and Sri Tikendra Nath delivered short yet inspiring speeches, highlighting the positive impact of Nijut Moina Asoni on the educational and social upliftment of women. They emphasized how the scheme has become a catalyst for motivating young women to pursue higher education with confidence and ambition.

After the speeches, cheques were ceremonially distributed to a few selected students in the presence of faculty members and staff, marking the symbolic launch of the distribution process. The entire programme was conducted in a well-organized and disciplined manner, reflecting the collective enthusiasm of the college community.

The event concluded on a patriotic note with the singing of the National Anthem. Following the conclusion of the live-streamed programme, the college office staff distributed the remaining cheques to the eligible students in a systematic and orderly manner.

Overall, the Nijut Moina Asoni 2.0 live streaming event served as an inspiring and memorable occasion for the institution. It not only celebrated the government's commitment to education and gender equity but also reinforced the college's role as an active partner in fostering empowerment and educational development among students.
